Building your character in Pathfinder: Kingmaker can be as complicated or as simple as you want it to be. The game was inspired by the Dungeons & Dragons universe and is an independent spinoff of the original Pathfinder RPG game, but has some distinct changes, especially where classes are concerned. It has a total of 16 classes to choose from compared to nine in D&D.

Furthermore, the 3.5e bard was a class that benefited immensely from supplements, which are unavailable in Pathfinder and replacements for which have not been published. You can make an argument for the Pathfinder bard actually being tier 4, sad as that is. It took the “master of none” trade-off for “jack of all trades” a bit too seriously.
